CELEBRATE HISTORY

In 2021, Juneteenth was signed into law as a Federal holiday and the Mayor of Philadelphia signed an executive order designating June 19th of every year a holiday for all City employees and shall be treated as such in accordance with the applicable Civil Service regulations and Administrative Board rules.

Juneteenth is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. Juneteenth is the only holiday that commemorates the abolition of slavery; more specifically the emancipation of enslaved Africans throughout the United States of America.

On Wednesday, June 19, 2019, Governor Tom Wolf signed legislation designating June 19th as Juneteenth National Freedom Day in Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania and Philadelphia were among the first to recognize Juneteenth as a city and state holiday.
